Mrs. Ward,

It doesn't seem possible that our class will graduate in a couple of weeks. I know I have a lot to look forward to in the future but I really don't want to graduate from D.L.I. I'll always look back to old memories such as 7th & 8th grade English. Those were great days! You were a truly great and dedicated teacher (still are!) and the class of '74 owes you a great deal. Thanks again to a truly beautiful

friend and teacher

Membership in the society . . . is a mark of distinction

It was with the induction of 3 seniors, 6 juniors, and 1 sophomore that membership increased to one of the largest since its formation in 1967. Members are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service to the school and community. Traditionally, the society sponsors a Christmas Tea for recent graduates.

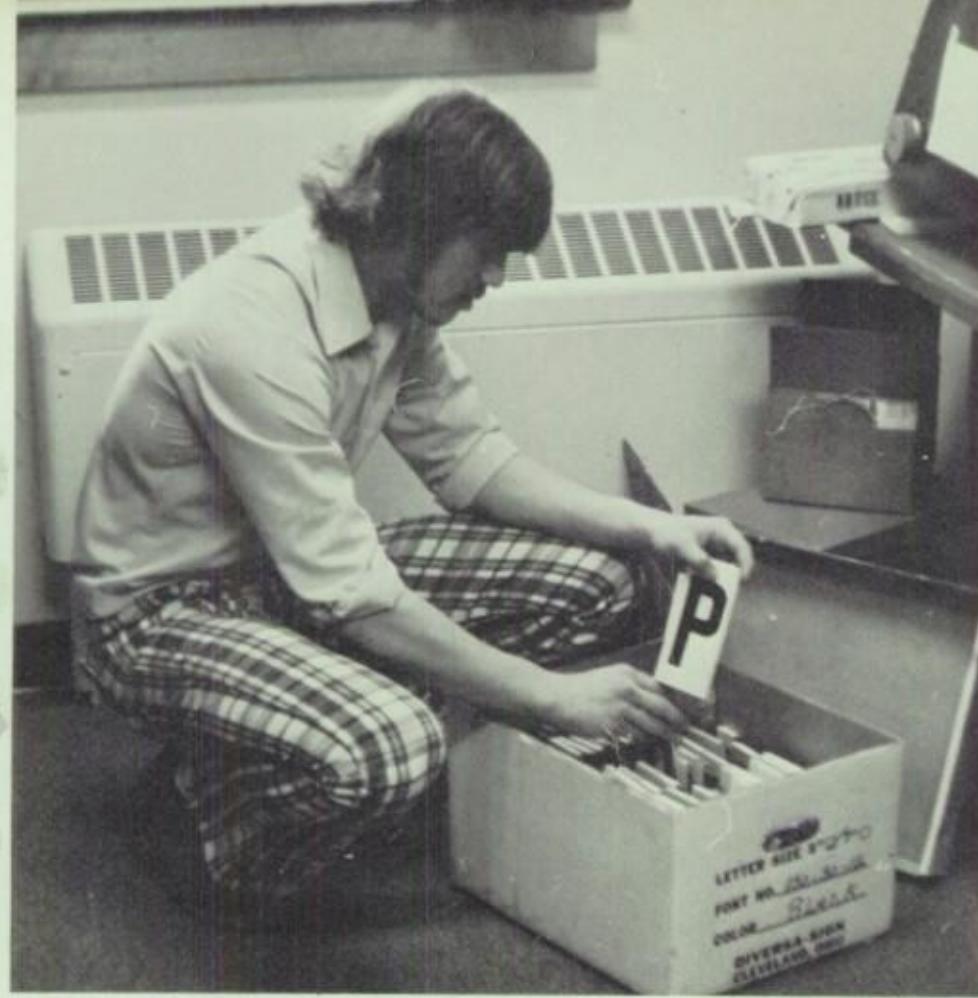

RIGHT: Serious application to her studies helped Kim qualify for membership in the National Honor Society.

BOTTOM: Mrs. Burgin, Vickie Van Dyke, Lori Stalter, Kim O'Hara, Kay Edwards, Midge McTighe, Colleen Hughes, Dan Serrao, Lorrie Serrao.

Members contribute to community activities

Members gain experience in domestic skills through such activities as gourmet cooking, making candles, and quilting. Decorating a hospital at Christmas gives the girls a chance to serve the community.

A project that the girls have undertaken is the making of a cookbook. The book is a collection of delectable recipes that they think will catch the fancy of housewives.

Mrs. Ward -

I will always have a special feeling toward you, because you are one of the first I showed my writings to - and thanks to your encouragement I showed them to more and grew to be proud of them. Not only that, but you have always been good to me and I value your friendship. I remain your friend always, Lorrie S.

Ted Yandeau was the 1973 Rotary Exchange student. He traveled to Australia in February and remained there for a year. He had various host parents while there and saw many fascinating sights such as sheep shearing. He also experienced the sport of kangaroo hunting. Ted made many new friends while in Australia and although he was glad to come home, he regretted leaving his new friends.

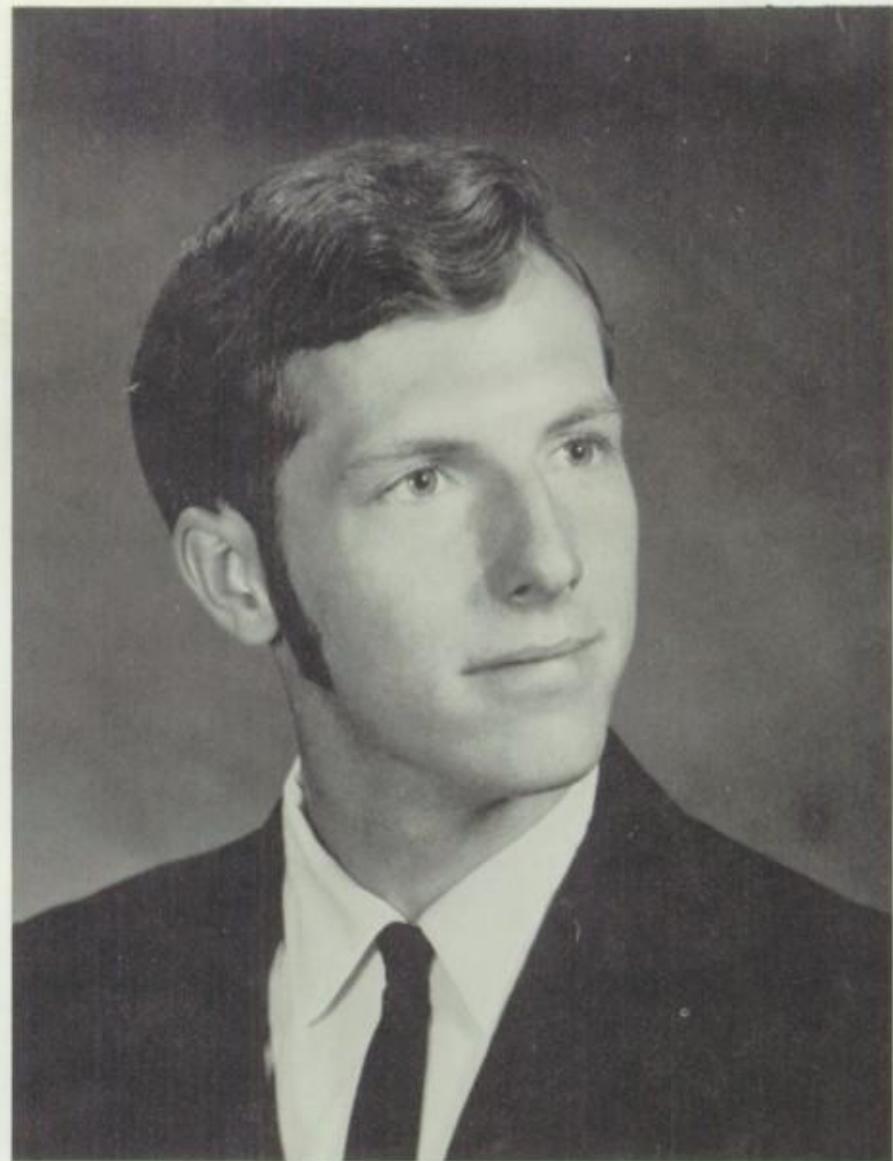

The 1973 Junior-Senior Prom was entitled "Winter Wonderland." Christmas trees, wreaths and snowflakes were used in decorating the gym. Junior king and queen were John Burgin and Lori Stalter. Dan Serrao and Kim O'Hara were elected Senior king and queen.

Principal's Message

As we approach the end of another school year, you, the class of 1974, near the end of many years at Franklin Central. But certainly this will not mean that your education has ceased. To continue to learn is not synonymous with attending an institute of higher learning, whether it be for one, two, or four years. One learns from newspapers, radio, T.V., and books and also from everyday experiences. We sincerely hope that we have prepared you to judge these experiences and to use them to achieve a happy and productive future. This class has demonstrated ability, as exemplified by four Regents scholarships and one alternate; and seriousness of purpose in that nearly all of you have carefully planned your immediate future, with the majority planning to continue formal education.

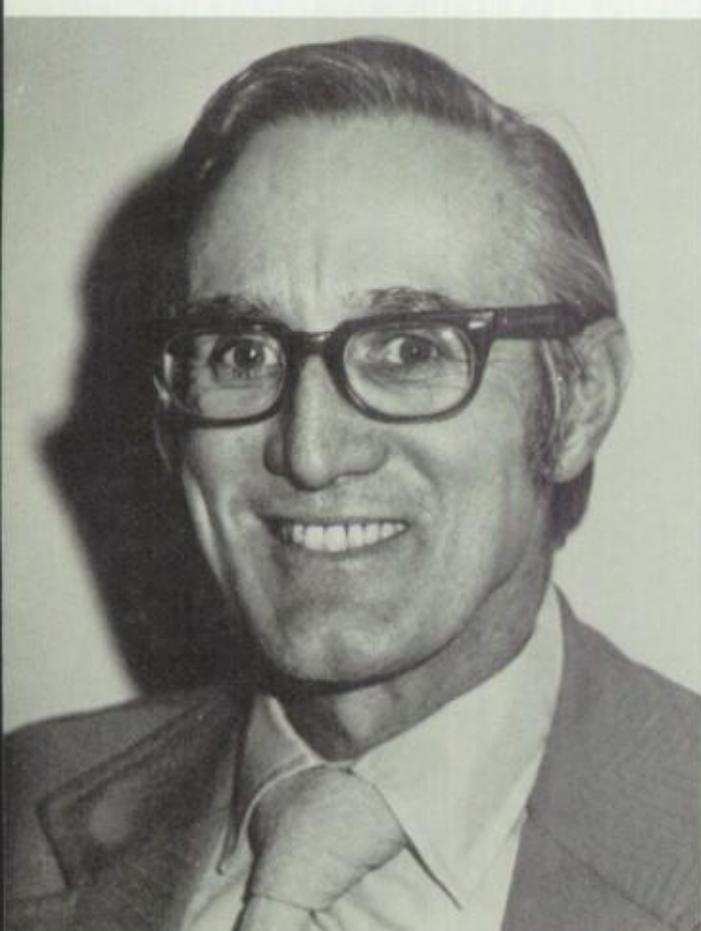

You can be assured that as you pursue your chosen careers, my best wishes go with you.

Sincerely,

Ralph A. Yandeau

Mrs Word enjoyed having you for a teacher and we will be interesting to work with you next year.
